

In our classrooms you will see...

Eager and motivated pupils engaged in their learning.

Positive and respectful relationships.

Our ethos and culture promoting children's rights is reflected in our classrooms.

Pupils learning actively.

Pupils developing in confidence.

Pupils helping other in their learning.

Pupils understanding the purpose of their learning.

Pupils having opportunities to exercise choice.

Pupils taking increasing responsibility.

Pupils enjoying learning.

Appropriate use of digital technology.

Pupils making good progress in their learning.

Challenging learning experiences.

Pupil voice! Views are sought valued and acted upon.

Pupils contribute to the wider school and community.

Pupils are aware of and can share learning targets.

Pupils reviewing their learning. Pupils are aware of and can share their own progress.

Pupils knowing how to improve and how to get help.

Pupils linking learning across other contexts.

Pupils taking part in a broad range of interesting learning activities. Experiences matched to pupils' needs and interests.

