

In class you will see our teachers...

Teach and deliver lessons which are underpinned by our school values.

Working to build positive and respectful relationships.

Good Planning

Present well organised classrooms with good management.

Present well structured lessons building on previous learning.

Stating clear aims of learning.

Sharing “why” as well as “what” and “how”

Present different teaching approaches and activities to support learning.

Positive engagement with groups and individuals.

Present clear explanations and instructions.

Present skilled questioning to promote deeper understanding.

Placing focus on developing higher order thinking skills.

Effectively use digital technology.

Providing helpful and supportive feedback to learners.

Timely intervene

Share high expectations of pupils which is demonstrated in pupil's high quality of work.

Use assessment effectively.

